RE: JONES, Kenneth
Case No. 2:05CR00691-01

The above probation officer has reason to believe that the supervised releasee has violated the terms and conditions of his supervision under such circumstances as may warrant revocation. These conditions are:

- A. Standard Condition #2: The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five (5) days of each month.

Because of the offender's history and current abuse of illicit substances, he was instructed to report weekly for drug testing. Mr. Jones initially reported as instructed but ceased to report after his office visit on May 9, 2006.

- B. Standard Condition #5: The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

Mr. Jones has not maintained stable employment since the inception of this case. The offender reported that he worked occasionally at Labor Ready and stated that he obtained employment at a detailing shop; however, both positions were part-time and the offender worked on an on-call basis.

- D. Special Condition: The defendant shall pay restitution in the amount of $2,956.88 at the rate of $100 per month.

Mr. Jones has paid a total of $75 towards his special assessment and restitution since the inception of this case leaving an outstanding balance of $25 and $2,956.88 respectively.

GRADE OF VIOLATION

- E. Special Condition: The defendant shall participate in a program of drug testing and treatment as directed by the probation officer.

In January of 2006, the offender was referred to Gaudenzia, an outpatient drug treatment facility. The offender purported that he was scheduled to attend individual counseling sessions on weekly basis and reported as instructed. Mr. Jones however, was unable to provide verification of his attendance. On March 13, 2006, this officer visited the facility and was unable to corroborate this story.

RE: JONES, Kenneth

- F. Special Condition: The defendant shall be placed in the community sanction center for a period of 180 days.

Because the offender failed to attend treatment as directed, his sentence was modified to include an 180 day stay at a community sanction center. This sanction would have served to provide punishment for the offender's failure to comply with his supervision and, provide counseling for his abuse of illicit substances. Mr. Jones agreed to the sanction but failed to report to this officer for placement.
